A Father Tries to Kill his Son-The Son Kills The People's Press, of Bluffton Wells county, Ind., gives the following account of a most terrible affray which occurred in that place last

On Tuesday morning this community was shocked to hear that a father Church, Boston, on Wednesday, at which had attempted to kill his son. On the the three bridesmaids were dressed in deep evening of the same day, a thrill of horror was again sent through the people, by the intelligence that the son had shot his father. Almon Case, proprietor of the Central Hotel, was the father, and Scott Case, the son.

It seems that the beginning of this sad affair was caused by a dispute bein their own region, and powerless and sus- carded in it.
